

Specialty Safety Consulting

As part of an effective overall Risk Management system, Russell Consulting International are able to provide a confidential Risk Assessment Service for those times when you need the professional support of an independent, capable specialist to assess a broad range of risks associated with;

- Facility wide Operations
- Process Technology and Process Infrastructure
- Operating Standards, Procedures and Tasks
- Major Incident Investigation

This consulting service enables organisations to identify their significant hazards, assess the risks posed by those hazards and review the controls that are in place to manage those risks.

The objective is to focus limited resources where they will deliver the greatest benefit while ensuring that the organisation can meet its regulatory and diligence obligations. The assessment output is;

- Executive Risk Summary
- Process / Unit / Facility / Operation / Task register of hazards (based on AS4360)
- Specific Recommendations regarding High Priority Risks

Additionally, Russell Consulting International can provide the expert knowledge and implementation assistance to correct any uncontrolled risks.
